IMMIGRATION.

A Large Number of well to do Immigrants Arrive.

Mr. Baker has his hands full, but is happy and contented.

The latter part of last week, a number of immigrants of asuperior class arrived and were at once taken care of by Mr. A. J. Baker, Immigration agent. Among them were a number of men with families. They have all been secured work, and of the hundred who have arrived during this month, only a few married men are not yet employed. This will be remedied in a day or two. Mr. Baker sent out a number on Thursday morning last, to work on the Morris-Brandon branch. Rev. Mr. Flewellyn, rector of St. Matthews, takes a great interest in the new arrivals, and they look upon him as a sort of father-parent. He is kept busy giving advice and looking after comforts. In fact it is more than probable that good nature is somewhat imposed upon in his case at times. This season it is to be remarked, labor is in greater demand than it has ever been here. A month or so since it did not appear as if it would be. Now, farmers are engaging help, for the year, and giving from $125 to $150 per year. This is accounted for in this way. They have now a large quantity of stock around them, that will require attention during the winter months, and it pays them to engage their help for the twelve months. Mr. Baker has everything around the sheds looking clean and tidy. He has just let the contract for painting office and residence to Mc. Grande. The interior of his office is having its floor covered with a handsome oil cloth, the walls are to be decorated, and in fact all it is to be made thoroughly comfortable.

A Cowardly Murder.

Dayton, O., May 11.—Samuel Cline, a white bartender, and Mike Heke, a colored laborer, were boasting last night of their skill in sparring. Cline told Heke if he would put on gloves he would knock him out in five minutes. Heke told him to wait a few minutes, went home, got a revolver, returned, and shot Cline, saying a word also through the heart. The murderer escaped.

Last year the Grand Trunk paid no less than £100,000 for coal, consuming 662,000 tons, at an average price of 11s 8d per ton, while on the Pennsylvania system east of Pittsburg the cost of coal was only 5s 2d per ton, on the E. & G. 2d, and on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio at was 4s 10d. If the Grand Trunk Track were in a position to procure its fuel supply as cheaply as the American lines, its percentage of working expenses would be as low as theirs.—Under Free Press.

Consumption Cured!

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility, and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this prescription, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. THE BRANDON-SOURIS BRANCH.

Engineer Garden out on an Exploring Trip.

One hundred miles will be built this year

On Friday afternoon last, Mr. Charles Garden of the C. P. R engineering staff who has been in Montreal consulting with the head officials of the road in regard to the construction of the Brandon Souris branch, left here for the purpose of taking a trip over the proposed line. He was accompanied by Mr. Fletcher, of the land department. He had never been over the country, but from what he could learn the preliminary survey was one that would most likely be followed in the construction of the road, which would be built this year. His instructions, of course, did not extend beyond a general look over the ground and to report to the company. The proposed line will run from Brandon to Souris, going along the west side of the river of the latter name, and tapping the various settlements until it reaches Melita, when it will run westward to the coulee, reaching a temporary terminus in or near section 4, township 2, range 6 west, of the principal meridian. It is the intention to extend the southwestern branch of the C. P. R northwesterly about twenty five miles to Melita, where it will intersect the proposed branch from Brandon. It will be understood that until the surveyors have gone over the ground their route cannot be decided upon in every detail.

BRANDON - MORRIS BRANCH.

Over one hundred miles under Contract.

About Five Hundred men working towards Brandon.

Up to the present, contracts have been let on the Brandon-Morris branch of the N. P. & M. bringing it to within forty-two miles of this city. Last week a number of men and teams left here for the work. On Monday and Tuesday, Mr. W. Matheson, who has secured a contract under C. Cornacue Streed, will have the first thirty five miles awarded, left for the work with eight or nine men and twenty teams. This contract, although the shortest made in the city as yet, is a good one, as $2.50 for man and team is guaranteed, and from $1.50 to $1.75 per day for a man. Some of the heaviest work on the road is on Shevell's contract, through the Tiger Hills. Mr. Bain, the engineer, says that the road will be ironed into Brandon by the first of October. In case the company secure the Northwest Central, they will go right on and complete it until that line, which they will build to long main trail in over their own road.

RETURNED HOME.

Mr. G. A. Simpson Returns from Ottawa.

A few days since Mr. G. A. Simpson, Land Commissioner for the Northwest Central returned from Ottawa. Asked as to his knowledge of Northwest Central affairs he said that there was no difficulty over the land grant, nor in fact over anything as far as negotiations with the Northern Pacific were concerned. The land grant can be had without any trouble, and along the line of the railway. The only question of delay was the difficulty there was had in securing connection with all that were interested, some of the members of the Northwest Central Company living in St. Paul, others in New York, Ottawa, Montreal and elsewhere. To reach these was only a matter of a short time, and he felt that all arrangements would be completed and negotiations satisfactorily concluded at the meeting to be held at Ottawa in June next.

Mr. McNaught, of the N. P. & M., came as far as Brandon on Sunday night last, and on Monday morning Capt. Wastie hired him and his companion out for a trip northwest over the line of the centrals. They will likely go as far as Shoal Lake. It is more than probable his trip is taken with a view to an inspection of the line.

THE BRANDON POST OFFICE.

A Magnificent Building—An Ornament to the City.

Yesterday, Mr. A. J. Baker, Immigration Agent, in whose hands were the plans of the new post office, returned them to Ottawa. Before doing so, we were enabled to obtain a sketch of the proposed building which will shortly be re-produced in these columns. The building when erected and completed will be a magnificent structure, of tasteful design, four stories high, with basement. Data will of endless be news to our Winnipeg namesake, which a few days since gave its readers to understand that the building was two storeys, having a basement and attic. It will be 80 feet on the avenue, with a depth of 40 feet. It will provide accommodation for the post office, the Customs and Inland Revenue offices, the Lands office, and also quarters for other offices that the government may establish here. The estimated cost is $85,000, not $30,000 as our Winnipeg namesake puts it, but is thought when the tenders are opened it will be found that the figures will run nearer $50,000. A number of Winnipeg contractors have been here looking at the plans, and tendered; a number of local contractors also tendered.

The building is to be located on the property just east of the Merchants Bank, which was purchased when property was much lower in value than at the present time, and we believe the figure was $50 per foot. This a year and a half ago was considered a very low price.

THE RACES.

A Successful Meeting and the Management to Be Congratulated.

The race meeting on the 24th was one of the best that was ever held here. The day was particularly fine, and had the race men had the selection they could not have improved upon it. The attendance was away beyond anything that had yet been seen here, and the decisions in the various events were such as passed without exception. The officers and directors did everything they could to make it a success, and this it certainly was. There were a number of local horses which showed to good advantage. Owing to the reporters being forced to occupy the position of the ordinary onlooker, from the fact that associationness up to the present not been able to erect a suitable stand, only a summary can be given.

THE LACROSSE MATCHES.

Two Interesting events in which Brandon Comes off with Waving Colors

Among the pleasing events of the 24th was the lacrosse matches between Brandon and Rapid City and Brandon and Deer Creek.

The first took place in the morning, and the attendence was excellent, the people taking great interest in the game. From the face off it was evident that the northern boys had met with a surprise from first to last. Nearly an hour, when with a well aimed shot, Walter Lewis, of the Brandons, put the ball through the Rapid City goal. The second game was keenly contested, and was won by Scanlan, of the Brandons. In the afternoon the match between the Plum Creeks and Brandons, promised to be more than usually interesting. The grounds were thronged with people on foot and in carriages. The home team proved too much for the visitors, who, it was claimed, were somewhat weakened by the loss of some of their best men. Some beautiful passing was made by the members of the home team. Four straight games were won, the time occupied being 20, 8, 2, and 25 minutes respectively.

REV. MR. WOODSWORTH,

Superintendent of Missions, Returns from a trip to the Northwest.

Rev. Mr. Woodsworth, Supt. of Meth. Missions, returned last week from a trip to Saltcoats, on the M. & N.W. He describes this as a seven months' old town, with bright prospects. The Methodists in that part are making good progress. The district is a good one, and considerable will shortly be done in bringing it under cultivation. The Commercial Colony, whose lands are near here, is looked upon as one that will succeed, the principle upon which it is worked being a favorable one. Crescent Lake was also visited. The church work here is progressing favorably. Distant from the Lake, about twenty miles, is York Colony, which is pretty well settled, by a good class of settlers. The land is excellent, and those occupying it are making the best use of it. Mr. Woodsworth was absent about a week. Mr. G. Bawden accompanied him.

Before the trip to the Northwest, the rev. gentleman visited the southwesterly portion of the Province and entered the territory, going as far as Cornwall. He is highly pleased with that country, especially in the neighborhood of Melgund. He says the cause is gaining strength rapidly in that district.

TO TEACH FARMING.

Inmates of the Provincial Reformatory to be Taught Farming

Speaking of the proposed provincial reformatory to a number last evening, a member of the government stated that the intention of the government was that inmates should be taught to farm, hence the desirability of securing a rather large tract of land such as the government had in view. It being understood that they have practically settled upon a well located quarter section near Brandon, in the winter months the inmates will be taught some mechanical trade. It is likely that tenders will shortly be called for the erection of the building. The plans submitted by the various architects have not yet been passed upon by the government, but a selection will shortly be made.

THE COUNCIL HAVE A DRIVE.

And Several Improvements are Contemplated.

The Mayor and several Aldermen were driving around the City yesterday, considering a general plan for public works for this season. The growth of the City within the past few months makes it important that more extensive improvements than have been undertaken the last few years. Side walks should be extended to the South east part of the city, and to that end no delay is considered. A sober matter that should receive immediate attention is the grading of approaches to the city, so that the rural population may know definitely where to make roads, bridges, &c., to meet the city. The council upon this point have considered some difficulty already, and should be speedily removed by definite action on the part of the city. It is not unlikely that certain improvements will have to be made soon on Victoria avenue, and as it is near the centre of the city it would not seem unwise to begin permanent improvements on the avenue, looking to the extension of the city limits as speedily as possible. It is not unlikely that debentures will be issued to meet heavy expenditures incurred in improving our live stock interest, and it would not be amiss to raise a few thousand dollars more to make sufficient improvements throughout the city. Our prospects just now seem to warrant this, and it do s not seem correct that the city authorities should be the least progressive. We trust that comprehensive ideas will prevail, and that improvements will be at once undertaken to fairly meet with the immediate future promises.

The Winnipeg Sun says in reply to a rumor by a correspondent that the Provincial Reformatory is to be located at Brandon, that Winnipeg is willing to take its share of the public buildings of the province and nothing more. The Sun then goes on to prove that as Winnipeg is the centre of population of the province, etc., its proper share of these institutions would be the whole of them. Certainly. Sun, that is Winnipeg all over. Take the whole province.—Manedosa Tribune.

And this bewilderment, in all probability, accounts for your very erractic course. It rather trying to be the H. B. C., C. P. R., Sutherland Alloway-Lurton-Beaton organ.—Winnipeg Sun.

A TEST OF BRAVERY.

The statement is made that the race of man is degeuerating, that the soldier of to-day is not as brave, does not possess the courage that the soldier of two centuries ago did. There can be nothing farther from the truth, and there is no ground for the hypothesis. Events are daily transpiring that evidence the truth of the statement that man to day is possessed of a superiority in every point over his ancestors. Only a few short weeks since, one of the bravest acts of centuries was witnessed in connection with the disaster at Samoa, at the same showing that the vessels were manned with men as courageous as they were brave. Not only did it do this, but it bound by ties that can never be severed, as far as those intimately connected with the incident were concerned, the hearts of two of the greatest nations on the earth. We will permit an onlooker to tell the story in its own words:

"The first portion of the fight with the storm was the fatal one for all but two big ships, the Trenton and Calliope. One by one the German ships which can hardly have been in as good a trim for the work as the American squadron and the British ship, went aspore, and were lost with many lives. The Nipsic, the smallest of the American ships, dragged her anchor also, but with great skill her captain laid her on the only patch of sand in the harbor, and so saved her from being a total wreck. Then the Vandalia, a fine ship, but with small engine power, began to drag heavily upon her anchors. She was carried I feel of the Calliope, and, luckily for the latter, she received the shock of the collision on her ram bow, and the wrecked corvette was carried clear away from her by the send of a mighty sea, but the danger for an instant was very great. Then the Trenton began to drag, and it became only a matter of time before she too would foul the Calliope to the destruction of both. The American ship, with all her holding tackle down and her engines working, was not holding her own and was helpless; the Calliope was holding her own, could, perhaps, do more than hold her own, and if anything was to be done to avert disaster she had to do it. And she did it. Capt. Kane, for the safety both of his own ship and to give the Trenton one last chance for life, slipped his cables, and piloted the Calliope, and the Trenton right across the storm and sea. For minutes and for moments the gallant ship fought the tempest and made not one inch of way, the mighty seas that came rolling into the bay swept her decks fore and aft, the tempest here upon her and buffeted her, as it were a veritable demon, but still she struggled on, held her own—more than her own—and slowly, but surely, began to make her way out to the dreadful bay. She forged up to the Trenton, she began to pass her, she had won the fight, and safety was before her, when came the event that makes the stern fight with the elements in Apia bay of more than passing interest. The men of the Trenton knew well why it was that the Calliope had taken the desperate course of trying to stem the gale and escape, and although they were being beaten through no fault of their in the fight, and the fatal reefs which had claimed their shipmates of the Vandalia and the Nipsic were growing closer and closer, as each send of the sea threw them to leeward, they recognized the gallant action of the men of the Calliope in the only way it was possible for them to do—they cheered her as she passed. The Calliope fought her way out of the bay, into the open sea and safety. On return as soon as the gale had abated and sidecar the shipwrecked ones, the Trenton went ashore with her band playing "The Star Spangled Banner," her crew at the quarters and her engine working."

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Gleaned from Exchanges and Otherwise.

At Cann station, on the C. P. R., sixteen miles west of Moosejaw, Wednesday evening of last week, Dr. Hawkes, a farmer, while making war steps, was struck and killed by lightning. There were no marks on the body, only one side of the face, where it rested against the cow, was blackened. The cow was also killed.

It has been definitely settled that W. A. and G. W. Hastings and S. A. McGaw will assume the management of the Keewatin flour mills, the directors having recently approved of a scheme.

A farmer from Kansas arrived in Manitoba to prospect for land for himself and several of his neighbors. During the past six months over 100 families from the United States have settled in Manitoba.

Coal mining at Cullmore is reported brisk, several new seams being worked.

Fred. A. Munson, barrister, Cobourg, Ont., who was about settling in Calgary, died there on the 22nd from inflammation of the lungs contracted on the way there. The remains will be sent east.

The license commissioners have been threated with an injunction if they grant a liquor license to the Hudson Bay company at Lower Fort Garry.

A number of white men living on St. Peter's Indian reserve, near Selkirk, have been ordered off. Considerable excitement consequently exists.

Prairie fires have done considerable damage in the Arrow river district.

H. R. L. Dundas, of Calgary, who went east with Winnipeg's crack cricket team a few years ago, died in Winnipeg on the 23rd.

We are also on the same authority, subject to the control of a gang of cut throats and pickpockets at present frequenting the town. There is something bewildering in all this. We are not sure whether the Free Press is the property of the last purchaser, or whether it owes allegiance to each in turn.—Free Press.

COMING NORTH.

Mormons Passing Through Montana En Route to Lethbridge, Wan.

Helena, May 25.—During the last month a considerable number of emigrants have been passing through Montana, en route to British possessions, travelling by wagon. It has been reported that these are Mormons from Utah and Idaho, and their destination is the country through which the Galt railway passes. Some time ago the Alberta Railway and Coal company was approached by an agent of the Mormon hierarchy with a proposition to buy several thousand acres of the company's land in the Northwest territory upon which to settle a colony of the saints. The negotiations hung fire for some time but were completed a little more than a month ago. It is not known what the considerations were, nor just how many acres were purchased. The deal was a large one, however, and the province is likely to have a very considerable Mormon population within a short period of time.

A Physician's Object Lesson.

A doctor, prescribing for a baby, was sadly vexed by the officiousness of the child's feminine relatives, who tried all sorts of home remedies for it, saying, in apology

"We thought if that did no good, they would do no harm, doctor."

At the end of his patience, the doctor one morning called for a bowl, a spoon and some fresh butter, and began stirring the latter round and round with an air of grave importance. The baby gathered breath in the meantime, but he gave them no attention until at last, curiosity becoming rampant, they cried in chorus.

"Oh, doctor, do tell us what you are going to do with the butter?"

Here was his chance. Pacing them solemnly, he said:

"I am going to grease the baby's elbow with it. It may not do any good but it won't do any harm.—London Tid Bits.

Explanation Did Not Help.

A Waterbury business man without a fussy sense on a Naugatuck train. He was seated in a corner of the car, and could not help hearing his grumbling neighbor, who was pointing his finger in his face. Finally he left his grip in the seat of the car and went forward to open a cigar in the smoking car. At the next station man No. 2 came in and sat down by the lonesome grip sack, man No. 1 in the meantime having returned to the rear platform. Presently the conductor came along and looked at the grip. "Whose is this?" he asked. No answer. "Say, who does this grip belong to?" he asked a second time, supposed it belonged to No. 2, and he at once raised a row and threw the grip out at him, yelling: "There, you! Here's your baggage, and if you ever ride in the car where I am I'll throw you off the platform!" Then he went back and told the conductor that the fellow who had left the grip had gone forward to the smoking car. The conductor went back to see about it, and could not find the baggage, the explanation of the affair made the incident rather aggravating.—Waterbury American.

Ruled by Women All His Life.

Here is a pretty compliment to "our mothers, our wives and daughters," and the general sentiment of all men will be to approve it as correct. Rev. Dr. Benjamin Akerly, the venerable Episcopalian minister of Oakland, Cal., said the other evening to a pretty young lady from New York: "In looking over my career I find that I have been ruled by a woman all my life. When I was a boy my mother ruled me; when I got married I had to do as my wife wished, and now I find that I am not independent of my daughter's control."

"And you have been to have universal pretty well over their tyrannical sway," remarked the young lady.

"Indeed I have, said Dr Akerly, and were I to confess I should say that had I always followed the sound advice I should have been more successful in life."—Cleveland Plain Dealer

A Grim Reminiscence at a Wedding.

One of the most terrible, as it is also one of the most thrilling tales that history has to tell, is recalled by the announcement in the fashion papers of the Edith Bryson marriage in Inverness cathedral. This lady's father was the famous Dr Bryson, of the Affghan massacre of January, 1842—the one survivor who, wounded and faint and weary, after a most perilous ride, reached Jellalabad to tell the piteous story of what had taken place in Khyber Pass. They were 16,000—ex, counting women and children, 26,000—who set out from Cabul—and the starved journey and he was the only man who had escaped. Between the two events of Dr Bryson's life came the battle of Ferozeshah, the siege of Mooltan, the Punjab campaign, followed, after the Sepoy mutiny, by the Abyssinian campaign of Lord Napier of Magdala.

THE BRANDON MAIL.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1889.

MORE FLAP DOODLE.

The local Grit print is in the dumps "because Manitoba's only representative" Mr. Watson has been condemned in certain quarters for his vote on the Jesuit Question. Hear it:

"To come nearer home, we are aware that resolutions have been passed on one or two occasions condemning Mr. Watson, of Marquette, and Mr. Daly, of Selkirk. We cannot but think that those responsible for these resolutions have ignored certain wellknown facts in arriving at such a conclusion.

The defence of its friend lies in the fact that for years Watson has contended the Federal Government had no right to interfere with provincial legislation, such as Manitoba Railway charters, and Mr. Daly is censured by the same consistant article, because, he having voted with Watson on this Bill, justified to an extent the action of the Federal Government on those railways. The difference between the two gentlemen on the railway Bills lies in the fact that Watson voted on sentiment, calculated to prejudice Manitoba Conservatives against the Federal Government, while Mr. Daly justified the Government because he knew they were a party to a contract that prevented them from taking any other course. He knew the contract with the C. P. R. compelled the exercise of disallowance until the monopoly rights of the company were purchased, and time has justified his course, while Watson, knowing also of the existence of this contract, voted as we have shown for political effect. Can not the public see the difference?

Again, Watson is defended in his Jesuit vote because "he was advised by Edward Blake, Sir John and Sir John Thompson that the Act was constitutional." Just so. Mr. Daly had exactly the same advice on the constitutionality of the measure that Mr. Watson had, while he is censured for obeying it, and Mr. Watson is defended "in glowing colors" for doing the same thing. This is the kind of consistency dealt out by our local cotem. for the purpose of making intellects for the Grits of Western Manitoba.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is [illegible] months we have [illegible] accounts for subscription to THE MAIL amounting to nearly $2,000 and so far we have not received more than 15 per cent. of the money. As yet we have not been paid by the Insurance companies, and we require the money to enable us to re-establish, and, perhaps to contest our claims against the companies in the courts. As there will be a meeting of the directors of one of the companies on the 12th June, we prefer saying nothing to injure them in the country, till we see what may be done at that meeting. If we have to fight these companies we will place the particulars of our case in circular form in the hands of every resident of the country to prevent others from being used as we have been. Meantime, we hold the matter in abeyance to see what the companies may in their wisdom think best to do.

Last Wednesday the Brandon Sun announced that Mr. Watson had sufficient influence at Ottawa to secure the volunteer camp for Portage la Prairie; and, of course, that Mr. Daly was void of influence, when he failed to received it for Brandon. The issue of the Winnipeg Sun the same day, however, announced there would be no camp at all this season. This is how the brethren agree, when the strike out for capital for their friends.

The Toronto Globe says:

"The administration of the Northwest Territories last year cost $2,753,293. The Northwest is sometimes called our heritage, but it appears to be in process of conversion from an asset into a liability."

And yet there are those who contend the political party that swear by the Globe are the real friends of this country—those whose organ says the Northwest is a liability instead of an asset of the Dominion.

Ottawa, May 19.—The greatest satisfaction is expressed here at the announcement made yesterday of the C. P. R.'s intention to build a branch line to the Souris coal district. It is understood that the company will lose no time in carrying out its promises. The new line is largely due to the unceasing efforts of Messrs Scarth, Daly and Ross. Their continuous representations to the Government and the company have been so successful that cheap fuel in Manitoba next winter is almost a certainty.

Although the Brandon Sun could learn it was Mr. Kavanagh that secured the new post office building for Brandon, it is strange to say it could not see the foregoing despatch in any of its exchanges. We reproduce it for the information of our neighbor.

We were going to say something further about another letter from Andrew Matter, in this week's issue; but as he has left for the "land of the free," we do not consider him worthy of further attention. It is a matter for regret that people will attribute their own misfortune to their surroundings, while they see most of their neighbors on every hand succeeding.

The Allan steamship Polynesian and the Donaldson freighter, Cynthia, collided in the St. Lawrence below Montreal Wednesday. The Cynthia sank quickly and eight of her crew were drowned. The Polynesian was considerably damaged and will lay up at Quebec, where she arrived in safety but with her bow staved in.

MARRIED.

WISWELL—McDONALD—In the City of Brandon on the 29th of May, 1889, by the Rev. J. H Best, B.A., Mr. Ernest G. Wiswell to Miss Alice Clywert McDonald, both of Brandon, Man.—No Cards.

The Ontario Government has made an additional grant towards unravelling the Springfield well mystery, the first allowance of $100 having become exhausted. The bottom of the well under the old McEwan hotel has been reached, but nothing was found excepting a few tin cans. There are still five more wells to be dug up. One of these wells is under the hotel building, and the authorities are chary about digging under this for fear the building will fall down. They will investigate the wells in the yard first. The officials, who have charge of the investigations, claim to have evidence in their possession that Gilford Williams never left Springfield alive; that the letters purporting to have been sent by him from Brainard, Minn., were forgeries, and that the report that he was murdered by Indians was concocted by those who were instrumental in expediting his exit from this mundane sphere. They intend to prosecute the inquiry to the end, and express themselves as satisfied that the bones of Williams are buried somewhere on the lot. Work will be resumed today.

OUTING.

OUTING for June is a number to delight all lovers of outdoor literature. The leading article, Yacht Voyages to Australia, by F. C. Sumichrast, describes passages made by yachts to that far off country. Excellent illustrations embellish the article. Other principal articles are Sports, Pastimes and Pleasures on the Cam, by C. Turner, richly illustrated; The pleasure of fly fishing, by W. Holberton, for which Daniel C. Beard has furnished pen and ink drawings; and the care of dogs, by that well known authority, D. Boulton Herrald. Lovers of the horse will read with pleasure June Days in the Saddle, by C. H. Crandall. Cricketers will be interested in Cricket in Australia, by C. H. D. Gossip. Camping Outfits and Equipment, is an article of value to all who wish to spend a summer in the woods. How O'Tabiver Bard won the Championship will interest wheelmen. The Bobolink, The Scarlet Pimpernel, One Day upon the Hills, and Boating, are poems of much merit. The Editorials embrace criticism on Photography, Lawn Tennis and Yachting, while the Outing Club and other departments, as well as the Records, contain much useful and timely information.

A SINGULAR FATALITY.

How the Family of James Mooney are One by One taken Off.

RICHMOND, Que., May 2[illegible].—A singular fatality has befallen the family of the late James Mooney, of Ulverton. It is not two years since the father was suddenly taken from them, and on the first of last March Miss Kate Mooney dropped dead, supposed to be from heart disease, though she was apparently in good health up to the time of her death. Her brother James, who was married, died suddenly on the morning of the tenth inst. Although for some time in bad health, he had been at L'Avenir the previous evening, a distance of about four miles, and remarked that he was feeling much better. His aged mother was so prostrate with grief at this second shock that she died on the 13th inst., and last evening Mrs. Kelly, the mother of the young widow, walked to the house of her daughter, half a mile distant, and died soon after reaching the house. A young daughter at home, on hearing the sad news of her mother's death, became senseless and speechless, and for several hours it was feared she would not rally, but she is reported better this evening, though still weak. The deepest sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

ALL ABOUT BISHOP.

The Secret of his Alleged Art.

Washington Irving Bishop was born in Boston forty-one years ago, and became known as an alleged mind reader early in life. He attracted no particular attention, however, until in England, some ten years ago, when at the time Slade, the Spiritualist, was imprisoned as a fraud, he announced his readiness to duplicate Slade's tricks without spirit aid. As an exposure of the deceit of Spiritualists and such people he made considerable fame and puzzled the English doctors and scientific men, who admitted themselves at a loss how to account for his peculiar powers. He did some famous feats in England upon bets that he could not tell the number of a bank note, and always stood such tests successfully. He assisted his notoriety in England by a libel suit against a man named Henry Labouchere.

Three years or so ago there was a renewed interest in him when in Boston he successfully discovered a hidden article, to get at which it was necessary for him, blindfolded, to drive a team of horses to a carriage through a crowded street. He afterwards duplicated this trick in New York. To accomplish this and similar feats he always had to be in physical touch of of some sort with the person whose mind he pretended to read, and it is asserted that his "mind-reading" was really the [illegible] of the unconscious guidance of [illegible] of the person with whom he was in contact.

A number of others claimed to be able to duplicate all his feats in this way, and Charles Montague, a Boston newspaper man, in New York and elsewhere gave public exhibitions in which he did succeed in doing feats like those of Bishop. None of these exposers of the exposer of Slade, nor the exposer himself, so far as is known, had up to this morning accomplished anything that could not be accounted for upon the muscle reading theory. As to Bishop's last and fatal feat, Dr. Irwin says:

"I had always been skeptical of Bishop, so far any power beyond that of muscle reading, until I saw his last feat. I say freely that in my opinion that feat cannot be accounted for upon any theory of known science or medicine. I do not see that there was a possibility of collusion, even if I did not know all the gentlemen present well enough to know that they would not have helped in a fraud. In my opinion he accomplished the feat by means of some mental or physical power of which science has at present no knowledge. The fact that the effort he used was so intense as to result in his death is pretty good corroborative evidence of the genuineness of the feat."

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for June, 1889.

A story of thrilling interest to all classes of readers, and constituting one of the most important contributions to our national history that has ever appeared in a magazine, is Colonel Richard J. Linton's account of "John Brown and his Men, before and after the Raid on Harper's Ferry," in the June number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, just out. The value of this notable paper is enhanced by the illustrations which accompany it, including portraits of Owen Brown, Richard Realf, and others, together with reproductions of the only existing contemporaneous pictures of the scenes at Harper's Ferry, and Charlestown, where John Brown was tried and executed. A dramatic account of the great Parnell Times Commission, by Richard B. Kimball, LL. D., profusely illustrated, is another feature of this number. Amongst other illustrated articles may be specially mentioned Noel Ruthven's "Up and Down the Famous Saguenay," A. L. Rawson's "Copts in Old Cairo, Egypt," W. A. Croffut's "Historic Houses in Washington," and Joel Benton's charming essay on old chimneys and fireplaces, which he fancifully calls "A Picturesque Outlaw." Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly has steadily increased in merit as it has flourished in prosperity; and its readers now enjoy about double the amount of good reading and pictures furnished by any other monthly magazine.

The Twine Question.

Peel County Farmers' Institute Decides in Favor of Manitoba.

Brampton, May 20.—A meeting of the Peel farmers, under the auspices of the Farmers' institute, met in Brampton on Saturday to consider and discuss the binder twine question. The secretary read offers from several dealers and manufacturers, and showed samples. The discussion was confined to a jute twine at 12 cents per pound and a manilla at 16 cents. Some who had tried the jute said the ball fell in too easily, and that the knots were not always secure, so it was unanimously decided that the manila twine be used. The president, Mr. J. Pickering, showed that the farmers should unite and act together, and by so doing they could have more influence with the manufacturers and dealers. Many of the most prominent farmers of Peel county were present and took part in the discussion. Among those in attendance the following were noticed: John Walker, Britannia; James Walker, Malton; F. J. Sleightholm, Humber; J. Stewart, Britannia; R. Casion, Edmonton; R. Crawford, Brampton; G. Tye, editor of Brampton Times; H. Clark, Brampton; J. Oliver, J. Earley, Halton county; J. Sinclair, J. Snider, B. Dale, Mr. L[illegible], R. Johnston. The tone of the discussion showed that the farmers present were strongly opposed to combines, and advocated more unity if they ever expected to keep on a level with the other callings and professions. They thought that if the manufacturers of binders did not use their [illegible] in securing a cheaper and equally good twine it would soon have an effect on their business, otherwise they should construct their machines that the [illegible] cheaper twines could be used.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.

From the United States Department of Agriculture.

Washington, May 20.—Statistician Dodge, of the Agricultural department, reports that Europe is practically the only market that American can have for wheat, and she imports only 144,000,000 bushels a year, raising 1,200,000,000 bushels herself—more than half the world's crop and twice that of all America. Of the European deficiency the United States supplies 95,000,000 bushels. In oats and barley there is a very small international trade, Europe importing only 19,000,000 bushels of oats and the United States exporting 2,500,000 bushels. Rye is the great bread grain of Eastern and Central Europe, and Russia alone produces more than does the United States. Europe imports not less than 1,500,000 bushels, and the United States exports less than 3,000,000 bushels. The receipts of European countries requiring maize do not make a sum half as large as the product of Illinois, or of Iowa or Missouri. Great Britain takes nearly three-fourths of the total, or 62,000,000 bushels, and this country exports 68,000,000 bushels. The deficiency of France could be supplied by McLean County, Ill., and Germany still requires less. Russia and Roumania have a surplus. Southern Europe grows enough for home consumption. Europe imports over one billion pounds of rice, but none of it comes from the United States. Of potatoes Europe grows more than she needs, while the United States supplies her deficiency from Canada and Germany. Only Great Britain, Belgium and Portugal, of all European nations, do not produce enough butter and to spare. To make up the deficiency, 25,000,000 pounds, the United States exports 24,000,000. It requires 140,000,000 pounds of cheese to supply the European deficiency, of which 118,000,000 are furnished by the United States. Europe has to import all her cotton, the average annual imports being 2,636,000,000 pounds. The United States sends her 1,850,000,000 pounds.

Mr. Dodge says:—"About one-tenth of our agricultural products are exported. No other nation exports so large a proportion, yet the articles shipped abroad are few. They are cotton, tobacco, meats, breadstuffs and cheese. All other articles together are but three per cent. of the exports. Enlargement of the surplus must inevitably reduce the price both at home and abroad. It is folly to look to foreign nations for a market of any of the bulky products of agriculture which are common to the agriculture of every nation. The more concentrated products may be profitably exported."

CURRENT OPINIONS.

United States Postmaster General Wanamaker, a couple of years ago, adopted the plan of dividing the profits among his employes. The second division took place the other day, when $104,000 were distributed among 3,000 people. In making the presentation Mr. Wanamaker said:

I regret to admit that I do not see much much has been gained by the experiment we have made except the satisfaction of making the effort and the pleasure there is in giving to you a share in our returns.

He has appointed a committee of his clerks to see if a better scheme cannot be devised. The dissatisfaction, it is probable, arises more from some detail than from any inherent defeat in the main principle —London Advertiser.

The president of the Winnipeg Conservative Association has resigned, giving as his reason that the policy of his party at Ottawa has for years been opposed to the interests of the country. They will all find it out in due course —London Advertiser.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

WARRANTED. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or the money paid for it will be refunded.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms, commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, May 20, 1889.

The executive mansion has been thoroughly overhauled during the past week; the woolen carpets and curtains have everywhere been replaced by matting, oilcloth and linen shades. The lady of the White House has but little time to see her friends, and it is no small task to arrange the wardrobe for the entire summer's absence from the base of supplies. Mrs. McKee has sat beside the President oftener in his afternoon drives in the buggy than Mrs. Harrison. The nurses in their white caps, with their infant charges on their knees, take the country air in the sumptuous landau in the afternoons. Mr. J. B. McKee, who is the President's son in-law [illegible] arrive from Indianapolis this week to [illegible] in removing his family to Deer Park [illegible] establishing them more comfortably [illegible] the summer.

The jaunt down the Potomac that was postponed on account of the death of Mr. Allan Thorndyke Rice, who was a personal friend of the President's and of the Secretary of State, will probably occur next week. Secretary Blaine had invited the members of the diplomatic corps to meet Sir Julian Pauncefote, the new British ministers and it was to be and will be, the event of the week in which it occurs. As society sees more and more of Sir Julian Pauncefote, it has more and more occasion to congratulate itself upon a really valuable acquisition to its circles. In private life Sir Julian is found to be an interesting man. He is a good talker, and is not a bad raconteur; but his matter is better than his manner in some respects. He can stand upon his dignity with a good air, but as a rule he is courteous to affability and kindess. He is seen to the best advantage after dinner, when the strains of music are heard in the drawing room. He is a technical musician of high quality for an amateur. In his younger days he used to compose, and played the piano with considerable skill. He has a sonorous baritone voice and used to sing. Whether Washington society will make the most of the British minister's social qualities remains to be seen. but certain it is, as he has repeatedly expressed his opinion of it, that he looks forward with much pleasure to his term of residence in a country where he has already made good friends.

Mrs. Harrison's mail contains every day appeals from office seekers to use her influence with her husband in favor of the writers. Some of the correspondents request Mrs. Harrison to remind the President that their applications remain unanswered, they have heard nothing about them and fear the President has inadvertently neglected to act upon them. They beg Mrs. Harrison to look around the office for letters or petitions and put them where General Harrison will be sure to see them. Some of the letters are from women. One of them recently wrote that she was a widow, with three "girl children." Her husband was killed in the war, fighting on the Southern side, and there was an unconscious pathos in the details of the poor widow's struggles to maintain and bring up "in the fear of the Lord" those three girl children. She wanted a postoffice paying $300 a year, and yet "it would be a God send to me." One man wrote recently eight big letter pages to Mrs. Harrison because he feared that three previous epistles of the same length, addressed to "your respected husband, had failed to meet his eye." The letter breathed the most devoted piety, [illegible] publicanism, and ended up with a request for an office of some kind that would make life easier for a man with only one leg.

The President and members of the cabinet have so adjusted things that future Mondays will be sacred to the Interior Department; Tuesdays to the Post Office department, and Wednesdays to the Treasury department. There are comparatively but few appointments to be made in the other departments, so there are no days set apart for them. They will engage in a sort of a go-as-you-please contest. It is not true that a day will be set apart for Indiana; the rumor that such was to be the case was a campaign slander. Indiana does not need, nor does it ask for any day; it comes and goes as it pleases. Ohio needs a day [illegible] State in the Union; [illegible] One of the more indignant ones remarked that if Ohio had three days a week for the next month the [illegible] Republicans would [illegible] L.

AT PRINCE ALBERT.

There Are Mutinous Proceedings in the Ranks of the Mounted Police.

(Regina Leader.)

We have received a long letter this morning from Prince Albert, from which we have only time and space for the following extract, which we select because of its special interest and importance.

By the time this reaches you the accommodation for prisoners at the Regina barracks will be somewhat taxed. A short time ago Supt. Perry found it necessary to leave home a short distance. Thereupon the police got together and held a council of war, determined to have some fun at the expense of the absent tyrant. Like true [illegible]cians, they resolved to strike the enemy in his most vulnerable point, so they broke into his wine cellar. Having drunk their fill they spilt the rest, and claret, champagne and burgundy rapidly disappeared, followed by jars and kegs of old rye. Then they sallied forth to the stables and painted all the saddles black (probably in mourning for the defunct grog, or as an emblem of this misery under Perry's command). Then they smashed things right and left. When Perry returned there was the [illegible] to pay. His appearance on the scene was more like fury than outraged dignity, while grief at the havoc which had been let loose on his cellar was plainly visible in his proud and noble countenance. A courtmartial was held and about a score of prisoners is the result. Each prisoner bore the air of a man who was suffering in a righteous cause.

Wide Awake for June might well be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Bacon's beautiful painting, "The End of a long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake—a lovely picture. Then come the true stories—five of them: "A Plain Case," is by the now famous writer, Miss Wilkins, who grew her early laurels in Wide Awake; this story is most pathetic. The scene of Miss Risley Seward's brilliant story is on board an ocean steamer; it is entitled "The Naughtiest Boy I Ever Met." Mrs. General Fremont's is a California story, "The House that Jack Built." Mrs. Annie Sawyer-Downs' story is of the Confederate side in the civil war, a jolly tale, "The French Member of Company B." The story by Sara Trainer Smith, "Overboard in the Java Sea," will go to everybody's heart. The serials are excellent: Margaret Sidney's "Five Little Peppers Further On" has a tremendous surprise for readers; "Sibyl Fair's Fairness," by Talbot, will be enjoyed by Wide Awake's grown-up audience.

Never Despair.

Even when all seems lost, there is yet hope. Many a des[illegible] disheartened victim of dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney compaint, scrofula or rheumatism, has been brought back to health and usefulness by Burdock Blood Bitters, the greatest remedy known for all blood diseases.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a Painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him—all failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, Costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the [illegible] of July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

SOME days since, an ox fell into the river by some means. It was unable to get out, and although seen by quite a number, no assistance was rendered it. With laudable eyes the Indians watched its endeavors and struggles. At last death ended its suffering, and then the Indians commenced the work of removal. This was soon accomplished, and a big feast was had over the remains.

NOT long since, a party in the city lost a valuable watch. He asked the assistance of the Foster Detective Agency to locate it. As this entailed a possible expenditure of money, and the latter not forthcoming no agreement was arrived at. The party who lost the watch was not inclined to state how it was done. There is though a pretty shrewd suspicion.

ON the 24th a large Union Jack floated from the top of the forty foot flag pole lately erected on the Base Lower. The same flag, together with about a score of smaller ones, waved proudly over the city hall yesterday. It was the occasion of the marriage of our popular chief of the fire department.

MANY who drive do not seem to understand that the law gives the right of way to the pedestrian. A man or woman who is crossing the street at a regular crossing is not obliged to look out for the person who is driving the team, but the person driving is to take care not to jostle or incommode a person walking. That is the law and common courtesy as well. How frequently we see teams draw up at a crossing so as to make it impossible to pass around them.

AN important social event was the marriage of Mr. F. G. Wiswell, chief of the fire brigade, to Miss Alice City west Macleod, adopted daughter of Mr. T. Bousfield, immigration agent, Winnipeg. The ceremony was performed in the Baptist church by Rev. Mr. Best. Mr. Fred. Cecil and a sister of the bride stood with the couple. The newly married pair upon whom were poured showers of rice took their departure by the Atlantic express at 11 o'clock. They were congratulated by the numerous friends of both.

She also favored the school by singing a hymn in the Cree language.

THE Congregational church was filled to overflowing last night to hear Mrs. Barker, of Chamberlain. Some very beautiful illustrations were used, interesting personal experiences related and good points produced, and though her voice is not strong her enunciation is good, the large audience heard it all, and must have appreciated her efforts whether or not they approved her sentiment. The speaker favored woman suffrage, but was not wild in her advocacy of it, in all her arguments she was courteous to those who differed from her opinion.—Sioux Falls Daily Argus.

THE importance of publishing a dissolution notice in the event of a change of firm is shown in a case recently decided. A note for $2,500 was given by a former member of the firm and the firm's name signed to it. It was discounted at the bank and the maker appropriated the proceeds to his own use. Being unable to collect the note when due the bank brought suit against the firm for the amount. They showed that his connection with the firm had ceased before he made the note, but as they had not published the dissolution notice previous to that time, as required by law, judgment was rendered against the old firm.

ONE of the pleasantest events of the 24th of May was the promenade concert in the Ice Rink, under the auspices of the Baptist church, for the purpose of raising funds to defray expenses of the new church building shed. The rink was decorated with union jacks and other appropriate devices, and illuminations of Chinese lanterns hung across the building from various points. The whole were an air of attractiveness [illegible] and beauty pervaded [illegible] low light, one could imagine themself transported to some fairy land, enjoying some fairy scene. Refreshments were to be had, and they were dealt out by the ladies whose every effort seemed to be to please. The band of the 95th batt., Mr. Cope, leader, was present, and enlivened the evening by a choice selection of music. The proceeds after paying expenses were about $125.

As the time approaches when the western fair will be held at Brandon 24th and 25th July, the directors express their thanks for the support the farmers and citizens are offering them, but they are anxious that no effort should be spared to make the show a success, as there will be a large number of eastern people who will attend, and it is to be hoped each person in the district will do all in his or her power to make a creditable display. A prize list is being prepared which embraces all kinds of stock and work, so that there will be a prize for which every man, woman and child in the district could compete. The secretary is receiving applications daily for membership tickets, but there are still a number of persons in Brandon and also who have not subscribed the necessary dollar. Remember this ticket enables you or any member of your family to exhibit, and admits you all to the grounds for the two days exhibition.

THE whisperphone is a small attachment that is made to be secured to the fan of the telephone, and enables conversation to be carried on in a whisper by parties using them. Mr. Patterson the genial manager of the telephone coy. got in a supply on Tuesday night, and put one on the instrument on the neighboring at Mr. Peterson's law office. Several times each day through the little instrument, and it was found to work satisfactory, parties being able to hear distinctly what was being said in a whisper. We have no doubt but many others offices will have them put in at once. The inconvenience of speaking in audible tones in the presence of others has often been felt when using the telephone, and this solution of the embarrassment will be received with delight. It has its advantages also when a young man wants to whisper to his best girl and is not near enough to hold her hand.

THE Provincial W. C. T. U. will hold their annual convention in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday the 4th and 5th of June. The morning and afternoon sessions will be held in the Presbyterian church, the evening in the Methodist church. These meetings promise to be unusually interesting, as a large number of delegates are expected from the various unions in Manitoba the Northwest and British Columbia. The popular president, Mrs. Chisholm, of Winnipeg, will preside. The Band of Hope will sing Tuesday evening, the city choir on Wednesday evening. The convention will be addressed by Mrs. Gordon, of Carman, and several other ladies. The meetings will also be favored with the presence of Mrs. H. M. Barker, of Dakota, of whom Miss [illegible] "Everybody praises our [illegible] W.C.T.U. president: Mrs. Barker, [illegible] the woman for the place, a fine speaker and a talented leader." The public should not miss her lecture on Wednesday evening. Admission free, collection at the close.

HIS HONOR JUDGE WALKER gave judgment on the 29th inst. on the application made to quash the by-law amending the Pool & sale stable by law. His Honor held that the Brandon council had exceeded their powers in framing portions of the by-law and made an order absolute quashing such portions, with costs. A. M. Peterson for the motion, H. E. THE opening services of the Congregational church on Sunday were well attended. The Rev. Mr. H. C. Mason, pastor, preached morning and evening and also conducted the Bible class in the afternoon. He took for his text at the evening service Luke xi, 23: "He that is not for me is against me, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." The rev. gentleman strongly urged decision, and that of the right kind, upon those who had not already closed in with the offer of salvation to do so at once, and so bear good fruit, which God intended all should; that no neutral ground could be taken. He that is not with me is against me.

DEAR SIRS:—I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for rheumatism, from which disease I suffered for some time, but was cured with two bottles. It is the best thing I can get for man or horse. J. Mustard, Strathroy, Ont.

A WONDERFUL COW.

Gives Birth to Two Lambs and a Calf.

The Family Thriving—A Talk With the Owner.

(Toronto Globe.)

The farmers of the Township of Tecumseth, in south Simcoe, are greatly interested at present in a strange freak of nature which has taken place in their midst, being nothing less than a cow giving birth to two lambs and a calf.

The interesting event occurred on the farm of John Henry Carter, lot 4, 8th concession line, on Sunday, April 11, and, when the news spread abroad, so many people wanted to see the curiosities that Mr. Carter finally decided to let them have a look and dispersed the cow and her progeny to Isaac M. Cook, an enterprising young farmer of Bondhead.

At first glance the reporter was rather disappointed in the lambs, having entertained some vague ideas on the subject, and hoping to see a fully developed calf with the face of a lamb, or vice versa. But they appeared to his unenlightened eye to be ordinary lambs and nothing more. This was at a first glance. A subsequent careful examination and comparison with other lambs of the same age showed

A MARKED DIFFERENCE.

The calf the unnatural percentage are larger and coarser, the wool is darker and in towards the pelt it is like the hair on a maltese cat; there is a tuft of hair on the breast between the forelegs similar to that of a calf. The legs are hairy, and the wool is slightly streaked with hair. The mouth is dark inside and larger and firmer looking than that of a lamb, and the tail is frequently thrown over the back after the manner of a calf.

If the lambs continue to thrive and develop more like calves, they will be worth thousands of dollars for exhibition purposes. There is a strong likelihood of their growing to a large size, and on both their heads there are dark spots, indicating

A POSSIBILITY OF HORNS.

They are at present as large as ordinary year old lambs.

The cow is an ordinary common grade, red cow, without any pretentions to pedigree. It is kept in the next stall to the lambs, and munches away quite contentedly.

The calf, which was born shortly after the lambs, as stated in Mr. Carter's affidavit, is also in the group, but it has not the slightest claim to distinction, further than the fact that it is brother to the lambs. All four are healthy and vigorous looking, and will probably live to be the centre of attraction for the many agricultural eyes.

Having seen the lambs the reporter decided to drive out and see Mr. Carter, the original owner of the curiosities. A pleasant drive was enjoyed
